"Dan was very helpful in explaining and communicating with us throughout the entire mortgage process. I would definitely recommend him and his team to anyone looking to buy a home."

– Richard D.

"My husband and I left our settlement saying how absolutely wonderful our experience was working with Dan. Dan is prompt, professional, and shares a plethora of information with his clients. No questions go unanswered—he always knows the correct response. Dan is the best of the best. We wouldn't use or recommend anyone else."

– Gail W.

"It was such pleasure to work with Dan Brown. He made himself available whenever I had a question and worked around the clock to close our settlement on the day we needed it to happen. Dan was dependable and reliable in accomplishing all of our timelines and tasks, with no surprises at settlement! I had full trust in Dan and look forward to working with him again in the future. I couldn't imagine our home-buying experience going any smoother. I'm happy to now call Dan a friend. I would recommend him in a heartbeat!"
